Professeur au Collège de France, le philosophe est décédé mercredi. Mondialement reconnue, sa sociologie critique s'accompagnait d'un engagement aux côtés des mouvements sociaux

PIERRE BOURDIEU est décédé, mercredi 23 janvier, à 23 heures, à l'âge de 71 ans. Il est mort des suites d'un cancer, à l'hôpital Saint-Anthoine de Paris. Internationalement reconnue et discutée, son œuvre a fondé, d'un point de vue académique, une école de sociologie critique de la modernité qui s'est accompagnée, ces dernières années, d'un engagement de plus en plus prononcé aux côtés des mouvements sociaux.

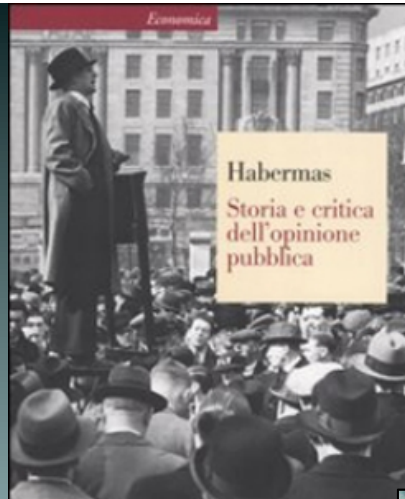

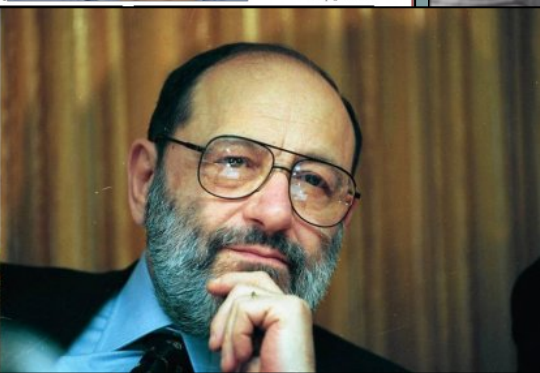

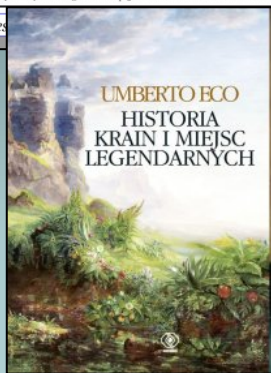

Comme sociologue, Pierre Bourdieu était en fait philosophe de formation. Né le 7 août 1930, élève de l'École normale supérieure, il pose l'articulation de philosophie et de sciences sociales à la faculté des lettres d'Alger en 1958. Ses premiers travaux sont consacrés à ce pays : « Sociologie de l'Algérie », en 1958, et surtout « L'Étranger », en 1964. Mais c'est avec ses recherches sur les situations et sur le système éducatif (Les Héritiers en 1964, puis La Reproduction en 1970) qu'il se fait vraiment connaître, dans le climat de débat intellectuel des années 1960. ### Pierre Bourdieu est mort

Professeur au Collège de France, le philosophe est décédé mercredi. Mondiallement reconnue, sa sociologie critique s'accompagnait d'un engagement aux côtés des mouvements sociaux

Pierre Bourdieu est décédé, mercredi 23 janvier, à 23 heures, à l'âge de 71 ans. Il est mort des suites d'un cancer, à l'hôpital Saint-Antoine de Paris. Internationallement reconnue et discutée, son œuvre a fondé, d'un point de vue académique, une école de sociologie critique de la modernité qui s'est accompagnée, ces dernières années, d'un engagement de plus en plus prononcé aux côtés des mouvements sociaux.

Comme sociologue, Pierre Bourdieu était un fait philosophique de formation. Né le 1<sup>er</sup> août 1930, élève de l'école normale supérieure, il passe l'agrégation de philosophie et commence sa carrière universitaire à la faculté des lettres d'Alger en 1958. Ses premiers travaux sont consacrés à ce pays - Sociologie de l'Algérie, en 1958, et surtout Le Déracinement, en 1964. Mais c'est avec ses recherches sur les étudiants et sur le système éducatif (Les Héritiers en 1964, puis La Reproduction en 1970) qu'il se fait vraiment connaître, dans le climat de débat intellectuel des années 1960. Suivent des travaux sur des thèmes aussi divers que la culture, l'art, la littérature, la politique, les médias, la haute fonction publique, la misère sociale, la domination masculine, etc. Directeur d'études à l'École des hautes études en sciences sociales (EHESS), élu au Collège de France en 1981, il réunit autour de lui une école sociologique dont la revue Actes de la recherche en sciences sociales, fondée en 1975, sera la vitrine.

Pour ses disciples, sa théorie du monde social constitue une « révolution symbolique », semblable à celles qu'ont pu connaître d'autres disciplines. Pour ses détracteurs, l'originalité de la sociologie de Pierre Bourdieu était obscurcie par un certain sectarisme et par ses engagements partisans, de plus en plus marqués ces dix dernières années.

« Ce que je défends, indiquait-il au Monde en 1992, c'est la possibilité et la nécessité de l'intellectuel critique. » Il ajoutait : « Il n'y a pas de démocratie effective sans vrai contre-pouvoir critique. L'intellectuel en est un, et de première grandeur. »

Die Kunst macht Politik

Documenta in Kassel ist eröffnet - und der erste Gast heißt Johannes Rau. Jetzt wird Gesellschaftskritik anschaulich

Kassel. Der erste offizielle Gast der Documenta 11 war Johannes Rau. Der Bundespräsident ist gestern von Okwui Enwezor, dem künstlerischen Leiter der Ausstellung, durch das Museum Fridericianum in Kassel geführt worden. „Kunst, die nicht politisch sein will, wäre nicht zeitgenössisch“, sagte Rau zur Eröffnung. Die alle fünf Jahre in Kassel stattfindende Documenta gilt als eine der weltweit wichtigsten Ausstellungen für zeitgenössische Kunst - und in ihrer aktuellen Auflage zudem als außergewöhnlich politisch.

Ein Politikum ist sie jedoch nicht nur in künstlerischer, sondern auch in wirtschaftlicher Hinsicht. Bernd Löffel, seit 2006 Geschäftsführer der Documenta, nahm die Eröffnung zum Anlass, über die finanzielle Ausstattung zu klagen und mehr Geld von der öffentlichen Hand zu fordern. Damit die Documenta 11 nicht mit Verlusten abschließt, müssen bis zum 15. September 630 000 Besucher nach Kassel kommen. Mehr als 6,9 Millionen Euro müssen noch erwirtschaftet werden.

Non-scholarly output is normally included in research evaluations in the SSH

Example: The standard evaluation protocols of KNAW, the Netherlands

Internationalization and societal impact: Conclusions

- The re-internationalization of the SSH:
  - Provides international scholarly communication and stimulates research quality among specialists
  - Selects English as the international language in most fields
  - Enhances research themes of international relevance
- The societal impact of the SSH:
  - Depends largely on the researchers themselves as generalists, educators and communicators
  - Selects the native language for scholarly and non-scholarly publications
  - Enhances research themes of national or regional relevance
- Researchers in the SSH need to publish in at least two languages

Overview

1. Internationalization and Societal Relevance
2. Publishing Patterns and the Basis for Indicators of "Research Quality"
3. The Balance: Conclusions

Scholarly publications in Norway's higher education sector 2005-2014

Based on 125,950 scholarly publications in Cristin (Current Research Information System in Norway)

Percentage publications in the national language

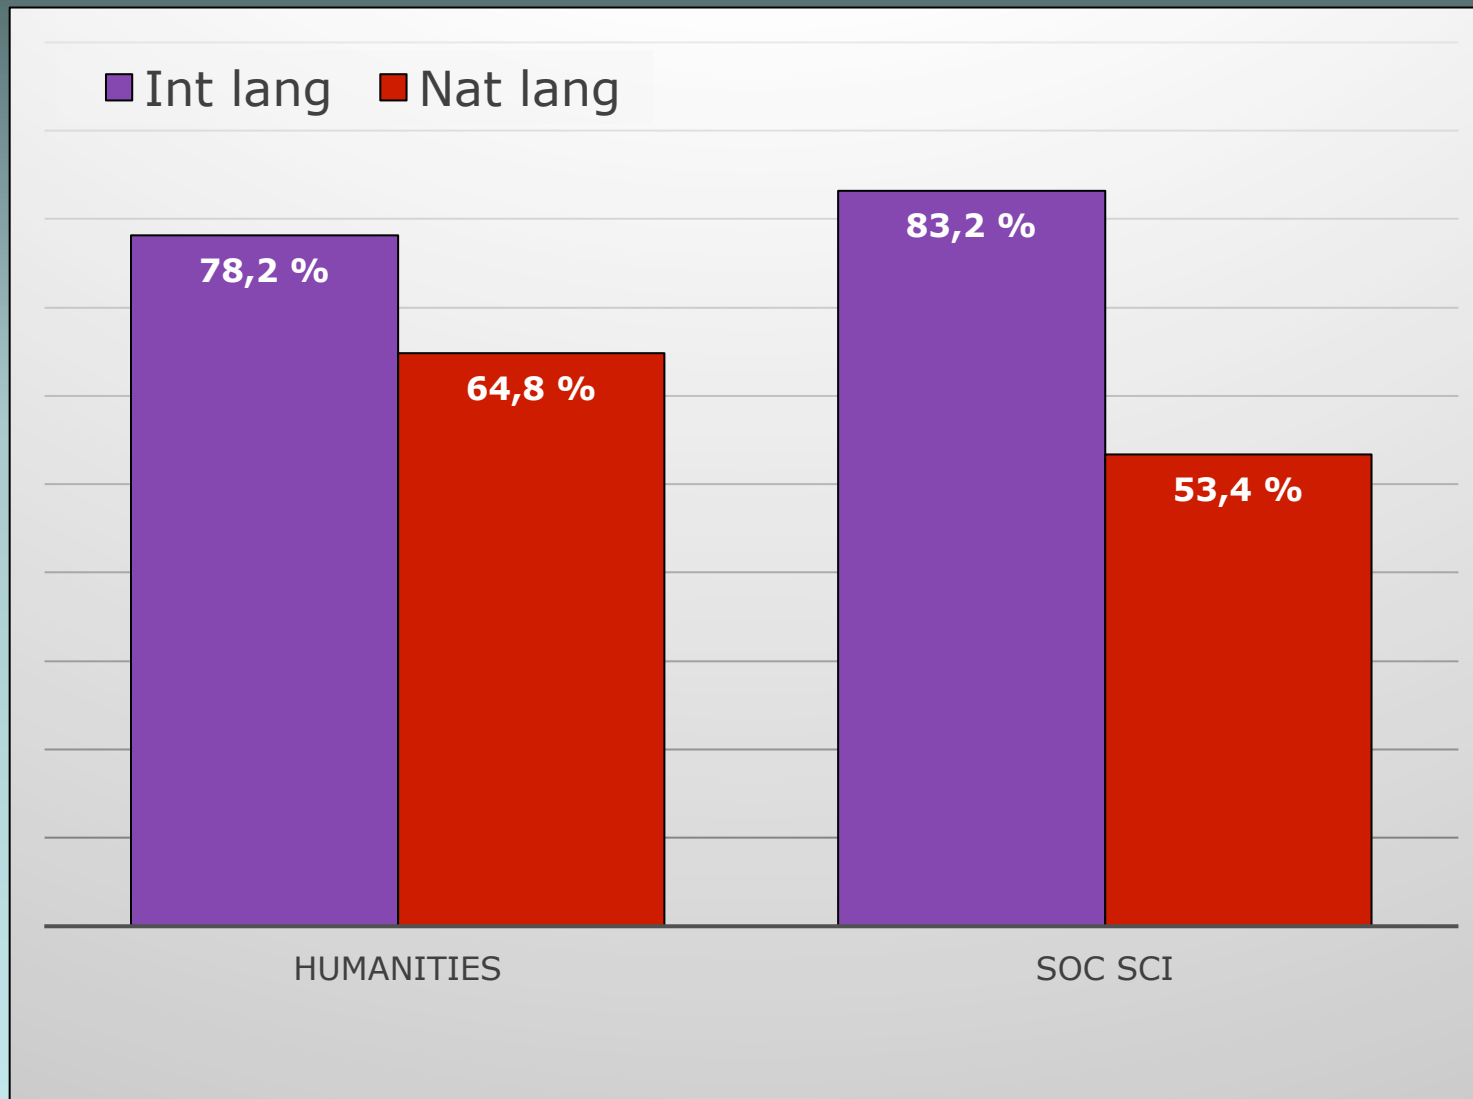

Based on 125,950 scholarly publications in Cristin (Current Research Information System in Norway)

Percentage of researchers publishing in international and native languages.

Based on 1,895 researchers in the SSH and 3,229 researchers in the social sciences publishing in 2010-2013.

Articles in journals/series as share of all publications

Based on 125,950 scholarly publications in Cristin (Current Research Information System in Norway)

Percentage of researchers publishing in books, articles in books, and articles in journals/series

Based on 1,895 researchers in the SSH and 3,229 researchers in the social sciences publishing in 2010-2013.

Scholarly publication practices in the SSH: Conclusions

- Researchers in the SSH are normally bilingual in their scholarly publishing
- Journal publishing and book publishing supplement each other because they represent different methodologies and forms of organization in research

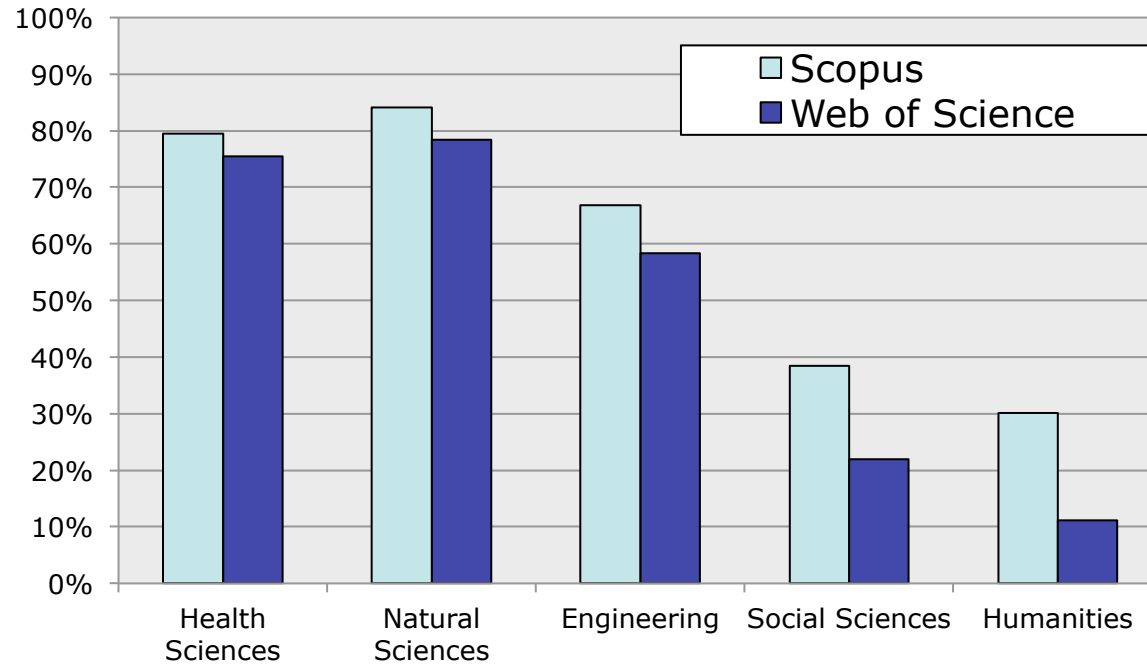

Incomplete coverage of international journals in the SSH.

Very limited coverage of books.

Random or no coverage of the national level (books and journals)

Coverage of 70,500 scholarly publications from the higher education sector in Norway 2005-2012.

Research documentation in Norway

Cristin is the new joint research documentation system in Norway. The system will be implemented in 2011 in all sectors.

Cristin is both the name of the computer system and an agency for research documentation, established by the Norwegian universities and university colleges with its own board. The Board has the primary responsibility for the system, and the university assists with administrative services.

Cristin research will provide increased value for society by facilitating that the research is available on the principle of open access for all. Cristin will also document, present, and disseminate research results in the higher education sector, research institutes and the research community.

Cooperation Cristin is also given other tasks:

Licensing and consortium agreements

Cristin will have national responsibility for negotiating licensing and consortium agreements.

Institutional repositories and open access

Norwegian Open Research Archives (NORA) has worked to promote open access to research results. Cristin will have the responsibility for the work of open access to the Norwegian research community.

Acquisition of indexed data

Cristin will, among other things, have the national responsibility for the procurement of indexed data.

Principles behind the use of institutional data in a shared national Current Research Information System

- Completeness: All scholarly publications and other results from research are included
- Transparency: Every institution can see and check all other institutions' data. The national database is also online and open to society at large.
- Multiple use of the data: CV's, applications, evaluations, annual reports, internal administration, bibliography for Open Archives, links to full text, etc.

European Reference Index for the Humanities (ERIH)

- Now called ERIH PLUS, the European Reference Index for the Humanities and Social Sciences
- Has moved to Bergen, Norway (The Norwegian Social Science Data Services)
- Becomes a dynamic register, new journals will be included continuously on certain (strict) criteria
- The “quality tiers” (INT1, INT2, NAT) will not be used any more

The European Science Foundation (ESF) signed in January 2014 a memorandum of understanding with the Norwegian Social Science Data Services (NSD) to transfer the maintenance and operations of the European Reference Index for the Humanities (ERIH) to NSD. The ERIH database operated by NSD is called ERIH PLUS.

Criteria for inclusion

To be included in ERIH PLUS, journals must meet the following minimum requirements:

1. Established procedures for external peer review
2. Academic editorial board (or an equivalent)
3. Valid ISSN code, confirmed by the international ISSN register
4. Publication of all original articles with abstracts in English and/or another language relevant for the field
5. Information on author affiliation and address
6. International or national authorship

See full details about criteria and approval procedures.

ERIH PLUS Conference 2015 in Bergen

NSD will host an ERIH PLUS Conference in Bergen May 28-29 to mark the start of ERIH PLUS. The conference will start with a meeting for the ERIH PLUS Advisory Group on the 28th of May at NSD. On the 29th of May there will be a Conference seminar on Hotel Radisson BLU for the Advisory Group, The National Experts and the NSD staff working with ERIH PLUS. The aim of the Conference is to create a forum for common understanding of ERIH PLUS.

Bergen and Strasbourg, 9th July 2014

The European Science Foundation (ESF) and the Norwegian Social Science Data Services (NSD) are pleased to announce that the transfer of the European Reference Index for the Humanities (ERIH) to NSD has been completed and ERIH PLUS is now accessible at the NSD website:

Ambitions

■ ERIH PLUS will

- Continue to challenge the limited coverage of the SSH in the commercial data sources
- Become increasingly important as a resource for the running of CRIS-systems worldwide
- Guide a more proper coverage of the SSH in performance-based funding systems
- Become an agreed standard and resource in the development of a proper evaluation methodology for the SSH at the European level
- Become an important information source for supporting research quality in OA journals
- Develop from being a “list” to become an enriched information resource – through European collaboration

Further development of ERIH PLUS

- Organization?
- Book publishing?
- An index, not only of journals, but of articles as well?
- Proceed to full text availability?

- Aims: Visibility, evaluation, communication

What is beyond coverage? Is comprehensive coverage feasible?

Towards a Bibliometric Database for the Social Sciences and Humanities – A European Scoping Project

A report produced for DFG, ESRC, AHRC, NWO, ANR and ESF

Developing proper evaluation methodologies for the SSH at the international level

Overview

1. Internationalization and Societal Relevance
2. Publishing Patterns and the Basis for Indicators of "Research Quality"
3. The Balance: Conclusions

Conclusions I

- The re-internationalization and the societal responsibilities of the SSH should be combined in practice and not set up against each other.

Conclusions I-II

- The re-internationalization and the societal responsibilities of the SSH should be combined in practice and not set up against each other.
- Researchers in the SSH normally publish in more than one language and in more than one publication format, thereby realizing:
  - Specific research methodologies
  - Specific standards for international scholarly communication
  - Specific forms of societal impact

- The coverage of the SSH in commercial data sources is:
  - Variable among the disciplines and very limited in some of them
  - Causing a notion of “visibility” and “research quality” which depends on commercial investments in large companies
  - Leaving the SSH with limited tools for information retrieval in the libraries

Conclusions I-IV

- The re-internationalization and the societal responsibilities of the SSH should be combined in practice and not set up against each other.
- Researchers in the SSH normally publish in more than one language and in more than one publication format, thereby realizing:
  - Specific research methodologies
  - Specific standards for international scholarly communication
  - Specific forms of societal impact
- The coverage of the SSH in commercial data sources is:
  - Variable among the disciplines and very limited in some of them
  - Causing a notion of “visibility” and “research quality” which depends on commercial investments in large companies
  - Leaving the SSH with limited tools for information retrieval in the libraries
- Visibility and proper evaluation of the SSH would mean a complete recognition and documentation of:
  - All the specific forms of societal impact
  - All the peer-reviewed scholarly publications in different formats and languages
